

Top Ten Moments in Epcot History

Podcast #567 originally posted on Oct. 8, 2019

Copyright © 2019 - Created by JamesD (dzneynut@wdwradio.com)

Post answer to bonus question in comments below.

Celebrations dream that became the park private Card Walker Disney Icon Tower True Future
 False Centorium Tapestry Nations three close Julie Carousel Progress Omnimovers World of Motion festivals Better Horizons eleven Mattel Circus Kristos roof

★ What significant accomplishment did Walt Disney feel was his greatest gift to mankind: Mickey Mouse, Disneyland or Epcot Center? _____

Across

1. The largest merchandise store in Epcot, located in Communicore East until 1999, was called?

Down

2. The parade in #7 Down was actually _____ parade sections in one.

Across

- Starting in the 1990's, Epcot Center began hosting a series of _____ celebrating flowers and gardens, food and wine, as well as music and the arts, in order to improve lagging attendance.
- TRUE or FALSE: At first the tower in #5 Down over Spaceship Earth included the lighted number '2000,' which was eventually transformed into the word, 'Epcot.'
- TRUE or FALSE: WDW's Millennium Celebration lasted for 15 months and began on Jan. 1, 2000.
- What phrase does Lou use to fondly describe Epcot Center? ("in celebration of the _____")
- The show in #18 Across was replaced with Backstage Magic, hosted by _____ and I/O; it stayed open until Oct., 1993.
- The _____ was a contortionist group that performed on a small stage next to the Future World Fountain up until around 2007.
- With the opening of the Norway pavilion in 1988, and the Morocco pavilion in 1984, the current World Showcase was set at _____ representative countries.
- What was added to the American Gardens stage by Mattel as a result of hosting the show in #9 Down?
- Test Track, one of the first 'thrill rides' to be built at Epcot, replaced this dark ride on the history and future of transportation. (3 words)
- The Astuter Computer Revue, located in Epcot Computer Central, held the distinction of being the first attraction to _____ at Epcot.
- The beloved Future World attraction, Horizons, the first attraction to be devoted primarily to the future, was a continuation of what classic MK attraction? (_____ of _____.)
- Lou's cohost for this episode is Tim Foster, editor of "_____ " magazine.
- In 1987, the Epcot Center's Daredevil _____ Spectacular performed in and around the Future World fountain.
- The first International Flower & Garden Festival was sponsored by "_____ Homes & Gardens."

Down

- The opening of EPCOT on Oct. 1, 1982, was the first non-Magic Kingdom theme park to open in the World, along with the first to not be dedicated by a Disney family member. (full name)
- The slogan for WDW's Millennium Celebration, primarily involving Epcot, was "Celebrating the _____, Hand in Hand."
- The Sorcerer Mickey's wand installed over Spaceship Earth during the Millennium Celebration was officially called what?
- The _____ of _____ parade, which could be seen from all around the World Showcase, was developed specifically for the Millennium Celebration.
- The Magical World of Barbie Show, taking place on the America Gardens Theater stage in 1993, sponsored by _____.
- When Epcot first opened in 1982, noticeably absent was the presence of classic _____ characters and merchandise.
- This Future World pavilion, which was sponsored by General Electric, opened exactly one year after Epcot and closed in 1998 to make way for Mission: Space?
- The ride system for #17 Across, known as _____, were identical to those of many classic rides, both past and present.
- The building of EPCOT project was, at the time, the single most expensive _____ construction project in the world.