

Top Ten Disney Villains

Podcast #593, originally posted on June 30, 2020.

Copyright © 2020 - Created by JamesD (dzneynut@wdwradio.com)

Post answer to bonus question in comments below.

True False Mongello evil protagonist antagonist Pinocchio cats Eels powers Thanos Loki Sidious dogs Darth Vader Syndrome Nicholson Ursula Jeremy Irons Askari Incrediboy Great Sear Maleficent Diablo Jafar Grand Vizier Odin Scary Muntz Bellwether Meriwether King Candy Anakin five Tremaine Gaston wicked

★ The panel agreed that the main antagonist in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," is extremely evil and powerful, considering that he does not have any supernatural abilities or powers? (Judge _____)

Across

5. The animated feature with the most number (five) of unique villains is _____. (bonus)
7. This Titan leads Tim's list and is a formidable villain in the Marvel Universe.
10. True or False: This list was created and discussed in the lead-up to the re-opening of the theme parks after being closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
12. Disney villains have shifted from traditional characters, to more non-traditional villains, such as Dawn _____ in "Zootopia," and in some cases, no villain.
14. In the Star Wars universe, the droid C-3PO, was built by this future super-villain? (bonus, first name)
15. Lou introduces the concept of a "switch or twist" villain, as epitomized by characters such as Hans, Stinky Pete, and this sweet villain, voiced by Alan Tudyk? (both names)
17. #6 Down serves the Sultan as _____?
18. True or False: This is the only time in WDW history that the resort has been closed to the public for more than one day.
22. This easily underappreciated Pixar villain, first appeared as a 10-year old Incredibles' fan, named Buddy Pine.
24. This Star Wars villain, which is easily held as the greatest villain of all-time, began his tragic life as slave-boy Anakin Skywalker. (both names)
25. Along with Tim Foster, Lou shares the hosting duties for this week's episode with someone very familiar. (Nicholas _____)

Down

1. There are a number of 'surprise or twist villains,' including King Candy, "Wreck-it Ralph," Hans "Frozen," Yokai, "Big Hero Six," Stinky Pete, "Toy Story 2, Charles _____," from "Up."
2. Most non-human, classic Disney villains are portrayed by what animal species, dogs, cats or males? (bonus)
3. What is the name of #11 Down's pet raven? (bonus)
4. Hades, the popular god of the Underworld in "Hercules" was originally going to be voiced by Jack _____. (bonus)
6. The main antagonist in "Aladdin" is consistently evil and holds everyone in contempt.
8. The main antagonist of Disney's "The Lion King," Scar was magnificently voiced by _____.
9. Most features (animated and live-action), and theme park rides, have at least one villain, or _____.
10. Tim rounded out his top-10 villain list with two widely different characters, the burlap-sack boogiemer, Jack Skellington's nemesis, Oogie-Boogie, and Cinderella's loathsome, evil stepmother, Lady _____?
11. The main antagonist in "Sleeping Beauty," which has been described as "an old fairy" as well as "the mistress of all evil."
13. The motto for this week's episode, could be summarized, "for every great hero, there is an equally _____ villain."
16. The character in #22 Across, which was the main antagonist in "The Incredibles" was formerly whom?
19. The Character in #8 Down was formerly known as Prince _____?
20. One of the top villains in the Star Wars realm, Emperor Palpatine, also known by his Sith identity, Darth _____.
21. In determining what defines a 'good' villain, Lou included the following factors: backstory, motivation, sympathy, depth, but not _____.
22. What word was added to the title of the Fantasyland attraction in DL and WDW to warn guests about the appearance of one of Disney's earliest villains, the Evil Queen/Old Hag?
23. Lou was surprised to know that this villain, who lost to a Belle and a Beast, did not end up on anyone's list!
26. One of the most beloved villains in the Marvel Universe is Thor's brother.